“Ka La'i o Hauola - The Calm of Hauola”

This theme pays homage to the famed Pōhakuohauola (Hauola Stone) of Lahaina, historically known for its healing powers and significance as a birthing stone for those of noble lineage. As Maui continues to recover from the devastating wildfires on August 8, 2023, this theme represents sentiments of peace and comfort, reflecting our commitment to support Maui's residents and lands until tranquility and comfort are fully restored.

The Festivals of Aloha is a tradition going back to 1946 and celebrates Hawaiian culture, traditions, and the spirit of aloha.

Festival Ribbons

A ribbon must be worn at all events and can be purchased for $5 at Hāna Ranch Store, Hasegawa General Store, Hāna-Maui Resort, Kahanu Gardens, Hāna Coast Gallery, Hāna Pit Stop, Hāna Farmers Market, Hāna Farms, and at events. Ribbons can be used at all Festivals of Aloha events around the island.
